Quality Education Today For A Successful Tomorrow

Dear Parents,

Nodaway-Holt Elementary students will be hosting a Grandparents and Special Friends Tea on Friday, October 13, at 2:00 p.m. Your child may invite grandparents, great-grandparents or a special adult friend to join them at school for this special event. Students and guests will share a special snack and then go to their classroom to see what they are learning in class. The Book Fair will also be open if they would like to take their special guest to the Book Fair.

To assist with planning and preparation of this special event, please complete and return the bottom part of this letter. We are very excited about this event and hope you are, too.
